

The Steam Boat Association of Great Britain

Once again we will be based at the Royal Windermere Yacht Club, Fallbarrow Road, Bowness. who are providing launching and berthing facilities. Their kitchens have now been repaired following the fire, so they can again offer us their normal excellent catering..

Provisional Programme:

FRIDAY 22nd: Launching at the Royal Windermere Yacht Club (or elsewhere – see below) from 4.00 pm. The RWYC Bar will be open in the evening and food will be available from their restaurant menu. We need numbers in advance – see booking form.

SATURDAY 23rd: Launching/steaming at the RWYC. Lunch available at the RWYC from 12.00 – 2.00 pm (numbers in advance, please). Tea stop in the Lazy Bay area, weather and time permitting, on the way back. Haul out of visiting boats.

Boat launching, mooring and registration:

The approach to the RWYC is through rather narrow and twisty streets, but experience shows that it is possible to arrive there successfully with a boat on a trailer. The northern approach from Rayrigg Road is the easier. To avoid repeated calls on the steward, please let us know when you expect to arrive, and we will be there to open the gates. Alternatively, there is a public slipway at Ferry Nab, 15 minutes walk from the RWYC. Lake Wardens' Office, Ferry Nab, 015394 42753, lake.wardens@southlaked.gov.uk. Boats may also be launched at Fell Foot (National Trust) at the south end of the lake.: 015395 31273, fellfootpark@nationaltrust.org.uk. It will take you around 2 hours to steam up to Bowness.

Mooring for visiting boats will be at the RWYC. Please keep to the jetty specified by the steward on arrival.

Boats must be registered on Windermere: either £15 for renewal or £20 for a new registration payable at the Lake Wardens' Offices at Ferry Nab or by post or online: <http://www.lakedistrict.gov.uk/visiting/thingstodo/water/windemerereg>.
